CALL FOR PAPERS

The is organizing the VI International Conference on Hispanism to share scholastic knowledge and research significance related to study of languages, literature and its interdependence on individual and the society. In the past, the Centre has successfully organized international conferences on Hispanic and Luso-Brasilian themes, providing a singular opportunity for Indian Hispanists to deliberate upon and update contemporary trends in these fields. Continuing with this earlier tradition, Centre is again organizing the International Conference to share a common platform for brainstorming and knowledge sharing in order to bring to the fore each one of our research and academic areas. Papers from scholars, researchers, faculty members and critics across the globe are welcome.

THEMES OF PAPER

The following areas of interest, selected as themes of papers for the conference, to encompass the varied fields of research trends in the field of Hispanism.

- » Latin American Literature
- » Spanish Literature

ABOUT THE CENTRE

<https://www.jnu.ac.in/sllcs/cspilas>

The Centre of Spanish, Portuguese, Italian and Latin American Studies (CSPILAS) is a pioneering institution in the country. Founding of the Centre gave a tremendous boost to the teaching, research and development of the Spanish language in India. This is the first Centre in the country which has introduced Graduate, Masters and doctoral degree programme of studies in Spanish and one of the leading Centre in Spanish and Latin American Studies in South East Asia. Faculty members of the Centre has been entrusted the responsibility to develop and launch the first of its kind online Spanish MOOC Post-Graduate courses under the National Mission on Education through ICT of the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India to cater the needs and aspirations of Indian students. Faculty members of the Centre are recipient of several prestigious fellowships and International awards.

Centre has been integrated as a participating institution in a European Commission's (EU) Erasmus Mundus Consortium for a Master's Programme in the Learning of Spanish in Multicultural and International Contexts. From the last thirty years, Centre annually publishes a research journal "Hispanic Horizon" which has high academic visibility in India and abroad.

Today, a majority of Hispanic faculty in India are alumni of this Centre. Some of our alumni are currently in the service of the government of India, while many others are using their Spanish language skills in multinational companies.

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU) was established in the year 1969 by an act of Parliament for higher academic research and development, is a premier central university, located at New Delhi the national capital of India. The mode of instruction is to encourage students to explore their own creativity instead of reproducing received knowledge was a new experiment on the Indian academic landscape. The very objective in the founding of the University was national integration, social justice, democratic way of life, international understanding and scientific approach to the problems of society. The JNU campus is a microcosm of the Indian nation, drawing students from every nook and corner of the country and from every group and stratum of society.

In its more than four and half decades of history, JNU has honoured several statesman and scholars of exceptional stature by conferring “honoris causa” on them. Currently many JNU alumni are Members of Parliament in India and the Former Vice-Chancellor of JNU Late Mr. K. R. Narayanan was the President of India (1997-2002) and this is a matter of pride and prestige for the JNU community.

Once again JNU has been declared the best university in the country by National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), Government of India which has given the university a grade of A++ (3.77 out of 4), the highest grade awarded to any educational institution in the country. In addition, JNU has also received an award as the best University in India by the President of India in 2017.
