

Contents

List of Tables

vii

List of Contributors

ix

Introduction: Decolonizing European Sociology: Different Paths towards a Pending Project

Mamela Boatcă, Sérgio Costa and Encarnación Gutiérrez Rodríguez

PART I UNSETTLING FOUNDATIONS

Postcolonial Sociology: A Research Agenda

13

Mamela Boatcă and Sérgio Costa

2 Sociology After Postcolonialism: Provincialized Cosmopolitanisms and Connected Sociologies

33

Gurminder K. Bhabra

3 Decolonizing Postcolonial Rhetoric

49

Encarnación Gutiérrez Rodríguez

PART II PLURALIZING MODERNITY

4 Different Roads to Modernity and Their Consequences: A Sketch

Göran Therborn

5 New Modernities: What's New?

85

Jan Nederveen Pieterse

6 European Self-Presentations and Narratives Challenged
by Islam: Secular Modernity in Question

103

Niitifer Göle

PART III QUESTIONING POLITICS OF DIFFERENCE

Eurocentrism, Sociology, Secularity
Gregor McLennan 119

Wounded Subjects: Sexual Exceptionalism and the Moral Panic
on 'Migrant Homophobia' in Germany
Jin Haritaworn 135

The Perpetual Redrawing of Cultural Boundaries: Central Europe in the Light of Today's Realities
Immanuel Wallerstein 153

PART IV BORDER-TINKING

10 Integration as Colonial Pedagogy of Postcolonial Immigrants and People of Colour: A German Case Study
Kien Nghi Ha 161

The Coloniality of Power and Ethnic Affinity in Migration Policy: The Spanish Case
Sandra Gil Araújo 179

Not all the Women Want to be White: Decolonizing Beauty Studies
Shirley Anne Tate 195

PART V LOOKING SOUTH

3 South of Every North
Franco Cassano 213

14 From the Postmodern to the Postcolonial – and Beyond Both Boaventura de Sousa Santos 225

15 Critical Geopolitics and the Decolonization of Area Studies
Heriberto Cairo 243

Index 259

List of Tables

4.1	Roads to/through modernity by the location of forces and cultures for and against	73
5.1	Angles on modernity	90
11.1	Latin American immigrants registered as Spanish nationals by country of birth	188