

The GIGA German Institute of Global and Area Studies / Leibniz-Institut für Globale und Regionale Studien seeks to hire a student assistant to start as soon as possible in our Berlin Office in the framework of the DFG-funded research project “Politics beyond Borders: The New Dynamics of Emigrant Politics and Policies in Latin America.”

The position entails up to 20 working hours per week and is based in Berlin.

The principal task will be the copyediting (language, style, and form) of a book-length English-language manuscript. The work will also include organisational tasks in the editing process and assistance on other publications and project-related work.

(For more information on the research project, see:
<http://www.giga.hamburg/de/projekt/emigrant-policies>)

Desired qualifications:

- native-speaker-level English
- good knowledge of Spanish
- experience in editing for style, clarity, and linguistic accuracy
- interest in the topic of the research project
- reliability and ability to work in a team
- academic background in political science or another social science is an advantage

Please send your brief application (covering letter, CV) to:

Stephanie Stövesand
GIGA German Institute of Global and Area Studies
Neuer Jungfernstieg 21
20354 Hamburg
E-mail: jobs-ilas@giga.hamburg (e-mail applications are particularly welcome)
Tel.: 040 - 42825-561

Screening of applications will begin on 20 February 2016 and continue until the position has been filled.

The GIGA German Institute of Global and Area Studies is an independent social-science research institute based in Hamburg. It analyses political, social and economic developments in Africa, Asia, Latin America and the Middle East, and links them to questions of global significance. On the basis of this research, the GIGA advises political decision-makers.

For further information, please visit: www.giga.hamburg.